[No. 29/44/G/L&C/57.]

S.R.O. 281, dated 26th July 1958.—The following Bye-laws for the regulation of the stabling or herding of animals and for the licensing of premises for use as stables or cowhouses in the Bareilly Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Bareilly, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (11) and (37) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act 1924 (2 of 1924), are published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR THE STABLING OR HERDING OF ANIMALS AND FOR LICENSING OF PREMISES FOR USE AS STABLES OR COW HOUSES IN BAREILLY CANTONMENT

1. Definitions:—For the purpose of these Bye-laws:—

(a) “stable” means any house, shed or building or room in a house, shed or building in which horses, ponies, mules or donkeys are lodged or fed;

(b) “Cowhouse” means a house, shed or building or room in a house, shed or building in which horned cattle are lodged or fed.

2. No person shall use any stable or cowhouse within the Cantonment for stabling or herding of animals unless a license has been granted for such purpose in accordance with the provisions of these Bye-laws, provided that nothing in these Bye-laws shall apply in respect of any stable or cowhouse in which only one animal, and one young one under one year of age are kept for bona fide private use.

3. Every person desiring to take out such license shall apply to the Executive Officer and the Executive Officer may grant the license or, for reasons to be recorded may refuse it. The number of animals to be stabled or herded in any premises shall be determined by the Executive Officer.

4. Every license issued under these Byelaws shall be in force from the date on which it is issued until the 31st day of March next following.

5. No license shall be granted for any stable or cowhouse which does not provide an area of 40 sq. ft. for each head of cattle authorised to be kept therein or thereon provided that a license may be granted for an existing stable or cowhouse of smaller dimensions if, in the opinion of the Executive Officer, it is provided with sufficient drainage and ventilation. No license shall be granted for premises for the accommodation of sheep or goats unless a space of at least 120 cubic feet is allowed for each head.

6. The floors of all premises licensed under these Bye-laws shall be well paved with asphalt, stones with cement pointings, flag stones set in cement, or some other suitable impervious material approved by the Executive Officer and shall slope towards, and end in, a drain there.

7. A license shall not be granted for any premises situated underneath any place used for human habitation, unless the ceiling of the premises is separated from the floor of such place by an unbroken layer of at least 3 inches of concrete, stone, brick or mud.

8. A license shall not be granted for any premises within 100 feet from any bakery or licensed butcher shop if, in the opinion of the Health Officer, the grant of such license is harmful from a sanitary point of view.

9. Every licensee shall deposit or cause to be deposited all the dung and dried refuse in such places as the Executive Officer may fix for the purpose. The Byelaw shall not prevent the licensee from selling or otherwise disposing of the cow-dung provided the method of disposal is approved by the Executive Officer. No dung or liquid matter of washed water shall be permitted to flow into any public drain, nor shall it be deposited in any other receptacle.

10. Every licensee shall cause the premises licensed under these Bye-laws to be cleaned out daily, between the hours of 08-00 and 09-00 and the walls and ceiling thereof to be lime washed once in every six months.

11. The licensee shall not use, or allow to be used, any premises licensed under these Bye-laws for human habitation.

12. The Executive Officer may suspend or cancel any licence for breach of any of the provisions of these Bye-laws or any of the conditions of the license.

13. Any person contravening any of the above Bye-laws shall on conviction be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

S.R.O. 282, dated 24th July 1958:—The following amendments to the bye-laws for regulating the erection of temporary structures in the St. Thomas Mount cum Pallavaram Cantonment, published with the M. of D. Notification No. S.R.O. 24, dated the 15th Jan. 1955, made by the Cantonment Board, St. Thomas Mount cum Pallavaram, in exercise of the Powers conferred by clause (18) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Amendments

In the said byelaws.—

- (i) in byelaw 1—(a) after the words 'Cantonment Board', the words 'or the Cantonment Executive Officer' shall be inserted; and
- (b) the words beginning with 'on payment of such fee' and ending with 'in front of a building or else where' shall be omitted;

- (ii) in bye-law 2, after the words 'Cantonment Board' the words 'or the Cantonment Executive Officer', and after the words 'as it', the words 'or he', shall be inserted,
